

1885
August 24-28 Have had to punish several boys "various causes. viz. Being loud and boisterous in their conduct in school; for annoying the inhabitants in the vicinity of the school; and for forming conspiracies outside the playground to harass and annoy individual scholars for little acts performed in school in the course of the ordinary lessons. I find the boys are ever ready to enter into any boisterous mischief; this is a general characteristic of the neighbourhood.

Punishment of Schoolboys

TRANSCRIPT

Pg 86

1885-august 24-28

Have had to punish several boys for various causes. Viz. Being loud and Boisterous in their conduct in school; for annoying the inhabitants in the vicinity of the school; and for forming conspiracies outside the playground to harass and annoy individual scholars for little acts performed in school in the course of the ordinary lessons. I find the boys are even ready to enter into any boisterous mischief; this is a general characteristic of the neighbourhood.

WHAT'S IT ABOUT?

This is an extract taken from a logbook for Trewirgie Boys School, later the Council School, Redruth. It dates from 1882-1894

Source: Cornwall record Office, Ref: SR/RED./3/1